

* 3/13/07: "BlackBox CEO to present at Clear Lake/Galveston PMI Meeting"

March 13th, 2007

Contact: Bill Dannenmaier, (703) 294-4974, bill@blackboxpartners.com

GALVESTON, TX - BlackBox Partners CEO Bill Dannenmaier accepted an invitation to present at the May 2007 monthly meeting of the Clear Lake/Galveston chapter of the Project Management Institute.

Mr. Dannenmaier will be speaking about "PMBOK," the Project Management Body of Knowledge in a presentation titled "The Federal Government Meets the PMBOK, a cautionary tale." This presentation is designed to bring a flavor of some of the issues facing federal project managers to a group in the south Texas area not normally accustomed to dealing with government PM standards.

William H. (Bill) Dannenmaier, the Chief Executive Officer of BlackBox Partners, LLC, has a broad background that crosses industries, functions, and cultures. Bill is a disabled veteran of the U.S. Navy with over 20 years of experience in managing people and projects. He is a Project Management Professional, PMP, with a depth of experience in the information technology and telecommunications sectors working with government agencies, startups, and established companies. He has served as a project manager in the United States, Switzerland, and Austria. He applies his extensive experience working in foreign languages and cultures to cross-cultural and "corporate cultural" issues. BlackBox Partners is a Service-Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) offering project management and database services.

For more information about the Clear Lake/Galveston, TX chapter of the PMI, refer to their home page at <http://www.pmiclg.org>.

For more information BlackBox partners, their capabilities and service offerings, refer to the BlackBox partners home page at <http://www.blackboxpartners.com>.